

WOW... Is the $1000 Gold Liberty a bit too expensive for you? But you like gold? Thinking of something special for Christmas? Maybe your wife likes gold... We have IT... something very special for Christmas. But not very many. Announcing the very first $50 Gold Liberty. Unfortunately, with Sunshine Mint already backed up, we can't guarantee Christmas delivery unless you order by October 31.

We started working on the $50 Gold Liberty a long time ago. But a series of problems and more urgent matters pushed it back. Finally we got the dies, but we still don't have the first order... We don't even have rendered artwork to show you, but "trust me," the one-twentieth ounce $50 Gold Liberty is going to be SUPER... and that is guaranteed... because if you are not thrilled, you can return it for a full refund, including shipping!

Briefly, the $50 Gold Liberty contains 1/20th ounce of .9999 fine gold and measures 14 mm (a little over half inch) in diameter. The obverse is dated 2008 and features the famous Liberty Head with the Torch and a face value of $50 on the reverse. If you like the "proof-like" quality of the Silver Liberty, you will love the strike on the $50 Gold Liberty. Plus we have plain and rope jewelry mountings that you can also order separately. This item is so new it is NOT on the shopping cart. Please call 888-LIB-DOLLAR to order.

Now the bad news. We ordered 100 $50 Gold Liberty samples some time ago, which we have not received, but they are sold out! So we ordered another 100, but as word has leaked out before we could make this surprise announcement, many of them are sold too. So if you want one, or two or five, or whatever, in time for Christmas... or before gold goes up more... please order NOW. We estimate that with Sunshine Mint already swamped with Christmas orders, and 30 days for minting, if we place our last order by the close of business (5:00 PM CST) on October 31, we will receive the order the first week in December and have enough time to ship it to you for Christmas. DEADLINE to order $50 Gold Libertys for Christmas is Wednesday, October 31.

Orders placed after October 31 will be filled as time permits from available stock only.

Please also ask about the jewelry mountings (bezels) so the beautiful $50 Gold Liberty can be worn as a pendant or earrings.

Thank you for your support of the Liberty Dollar – returning America to value – $50 dollars at a time.
