

Media should stay out of it

To the editor:
Shame on the Courier & Press for subjecting the Liberty Dollar and its originator to additional and unnecessary attention while the matter is still subject to a grand jury investigation and possible jury trial!

Won't it be more difficult to obtain a fair hearing and trial with all of this additional attention from the press?

Will your new standard be to subject every alleged criminal to this process?

I, for one, refuse to comment further on this matter in the interest of protecting someone's constitutional rights to a fair trial.
